

COMMENTS ON CLARIFYING THE PRESENCE/ABSENCE OF A REASONABLE DOUBT WITH REGARDS TO DRIVING ABILITIES

Various methods can be used to clarify whether there is a reasonable doubt with regards to the person's driving abilities. The team/professional can decide to pursue the evaluation, or after obtaining permission from the person, can communicate with the treating physician or other healthcare professionals who know the person well and can assist in clarifying whether there is reasonable doubt regarding the person's ability to drive safely.
