

Introductory training

Online Introductory Self-study Courses are made up of four modules:

- Module 1: Introduction to the syllabus (20 minutes).
- Module 2: Understanding the assessment of the syllabus (30-40 minutes).
- Module 3: Planning the course (30-40 minutes).
- Module 4: Support from Cambridge International (15 minutes).

These timings are an estimate. The modules can be viewed again at any time. In each module teachers will:

- work through interactive presentations
- review samples of students' work and the marks achieved
- hear advice from teachers (you will need speakers or headphones)
- reflect on how to prepare for teaching.
