

Speaker for Paper 3

Captain Rod Short

Executive Secretary - GlobalMET

Managing Director - AustralAsian Maritime Education Services Limited

1953-65: Deck cadet/officer, Union Steam Ship Company of
New Zealand and Shell Tankers, Extra Master Certificate, Southampton, teaching navigation and seamanship.

1965-78: Ferry Skipper, Instructor, Examiner of Masters &
Mates, CEO (Marine), Marine Division, NZ MoT.
Master of Public Policy, Diploma of Public Administration (Victoria University of Wellington).

1978-90: Head of Nautical Studies, Singapore Polytechnic,
Commissioner, Eniwetok / Sentosa Cableway Collision
Commission of Enquiry, court adviser, marine consultant and delivery ship master. Member, Board of Governors, United World College of S E Asia.
Secretary, Republic of Singapore Yacht Club.
Awarded Singapore Public Service Medal.

1990-95: CEO/Principal, Australian Maritime College.
Director AMC Search Ltd and Australian Maritime Engineering Cooperative Research Centre.
Established Association of Maritime Education and Training Institutions in Asia Pacific (AMETIAP) and Australia - Maritime Training.

1996: formed AustralAsian Maritime Education Services
Ltd (AMES) servicing maritime education in Asia
Pacific, including provision of ExecSec services to AMETIAP.

Currently: MD of AustralAsian Maritime Education Services
Ltd, Executive Secretary of GlobalMET Limited (formerly AMETIAP)

