

Food and Nutrition Fun for Elementary Age Children July 2008

This publication is a compilation of resources suitable for children. The resources are in a variety of information formats: articles, pamphlets, books and full-text materials on the World Wide Web. Opinions expressed in the publications do not necessarily reflect the views of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Your local library or bookstore can help you locate these resources. Contact information is provided for Web sites and organizations.

This publication has been prepared as a resource for parents, teachers, educators, and child care providers interested in materials that will create a food and nutrition awareness in children while teaching them the ABC's of healthy eating. Also included in this list are resources that discuss where our food comes from, how to grow your own food, and foods that come from different cultures. In addition, websites that provide similar information and that have been created specifically for children are listed. Resources contained in this publication have been reviewed by the staff at the Food and Nutrition Information Center.

This Resource List is available from the Food and Nutrition Information Center's (FNIC) Web site at: http://www.nal.usda.gov/fnic/pubs/bibs/gen/fun\_elementary.pdf.
